

KENTUCKY IS YET

IN DOUBT

It Will Take an Official Count to Thoroughly Satisfy Both Parties.

ELECTORAL VOTE

WILL BE DIVIDED

GROSS FRAUDS BY REPUBLICANS IN MOUNTAIN COUNTIES.

Woodson Thoroughly Confident of the Election of Bryan and Several Electors by a Small but Safe Majority—Latest Election News From Other States of the Union.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 6.—It will take the official count to satisfy both sides in Kentucky.

The last newspaper figures place McKinley's plurality in the state at 633. The official count by counties is about complete outside of this, Jefferson county, which will not be finished for four or five days, owing to the large vote, but the figures are not obtainable at this hour. The state returning board will meet three weeks from Tuesday to pass on the count by counties. Each and Smith, the electors of the Republican and Democratic tickets, are running ahead of the other electors on the official count, and no matter which way the state goes, the electoral vote is going to be divided; that is, if the Republicans carry the state, they will get 12 electors and the Democrats 1, and vice versa if the Democrats do. This results from the fact that a large number of voters placed the cross opposite the name of the first elector instead of under the party device.

VERY CHIPPER.

The Republicans are very chipper tonight. Chairman Roberts said at 9 o'clock:

"We have received official returns from all except 25 counties. We have trustworthy returns from the mountain ones, however, and the 119 counties of the state show 435 plurality for McKinley. We are perfectly satisfied that we have carried the state. I am confident on further official returns and expect to send Major McKinley a telegram about midnight. I concede the Democrats one elector, owing to the failure of voters to stamp their ballots correctly."

WOODSON CONFIDENT.

Ury Woodson, member of the free silver committee for Kentucky, made the following statement tonight:

"I am more confident tonight than I have been at any time since the election that the Democratic electoral ticket was elected in Kentucky, but I have an abundance of evidence that the Republicans of the mountain counties where the Democrats are exceedingly scarce, have perpetrated the grossest frauds both before and since the polls closed on Tuesday. This information has come to me from most respectable men at Middletown, Pineville, Barboursville, London, Somerset and other towns in eastern Kentucky.

"The Republican committee and the press of Louisville have kept up a steady claim that the three days of McKinley's plurality stand at 2,292, and returns from these counties will not materially change the result. Bets on McKinley's election are being paid by Democrats in this city, who concede Bryan's defeat in the state."

VERMONT.

PORTLAND, Nov. 6.—No returns have been received yet from Crook, Curry and Harney counties. McKinley's plurality stands at 2,292, and returns from these counties will not materially change the result. Bets on McKinley's election are being paid by Democrats in this city, who concede Bryan's defeat in the state."

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt.

Nov. 6.—Of 245 towns and cities in this state, 222 have reported and give the following vote: Republican, 43,831; Democratic, 9,421; National Democratic, 1,271; Prohibition, 681; People's, 453. Republican plurality, 39,010; majority over all, 36,655.

TENNESSEE.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 6.—Official returns show T. W. Carmack to have defeated Joseph Patterson for congress from this district by 456 majority. Col. Patterson has finally declared his purpose to contest before congress.

The Democrats refuse to admit the Republican gains and their claims of carrying the state, and say tonight that Bryan has carried Tennessee by at least 10,000 majority.

MINNESOTA.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 6.—John Lind, fusion candidate for governor, this afternoon issued a statement in which he admitted the election of Clough by from 1,200 to 2,000. He believes there has been fraud in the mountain part of the state and in this city, but adds that he has neither the time nor the means to investigate, and will therefore accept the result.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 6.—The result of the election in this state on the national ticket seems to be that the majority for Bryan is 20,000. The First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth districts return Democrats to congress. In the Tenth district the vote is very close, the general summary so far giving Yost, Republican, 16 majority, and the result probably depends on the decision in regard to the irregularities in one county. The Ninth district is certain Republican. The official vote is coming in very slowly from all over the state as a great majority of the election districts adjourned over until next week.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

YANKTON, S. D., Nov. 6.—At 10 o'clock tonight South Dakota's vote on presidential electors is tied, and an official count will be required to determine the result. The Republican managers have closed their office with the above declaration. Any claim of the Populists that this state is for Bryan is not justified by the returns. Corrections and changes in three precincts not heard from may give the electors to Bryan.

On the face of the returns McKinley electors have carried South Dakota by 300.

WYOMING IN DOUBT.

Democrats Claim Bryan Electors, Congressman and Chief Justice.

(Special to The Herald.)

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 6.—Returns in Wyoming, compiled by the Democratic state committee at 10 o'clock tonight, show the following results:

Bryan, 9,338; McKinley, 9,101; congress, Osborne, Democrat, 9,310; Mondell, Republican, 9,308; justice, Corn, Democrat, 9,117; Groesbeck, Republican, 8,968.

Returns are complete in four counties.

vanish show the total vote to be as follows:

For president—McKinley (Rep.), 720, 571; Bryan (Dem.), 428,966; Levering (Pro.), 15,292; Palmer (National Dem.), 10,321. McKinley's plurality, 297,095.

For congressmen at large—Grow (Rep.), 803,432; Davenport (Rep.), 800, 300; Dewitt (Dem.), 410,701; Altman (Dem. and Pop.), 412,200.

The Republicans elect 27 congressmen (including congressmen at large) and the Democrats three. The Democrats are: William McAdams (Gold and Silver), Third district; Daniel Ernest Trout, Ninth district; and George J. Benner, Nineteenth district. The delegation to the present congress is composed of 23 Republicans and 27 Democrats. The new legislature, which will elect a United States senator to succeed J. Donald Cameron, whose term will expire March 4, 1897, is divided politically as follows: Senate, Republicans, 45; Democrats, 6. House, Republicans, 170; Democrats, 24.

Republican majority on joint ballot, 174.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—Returns collected up to midnight give the following result: Two thousand two hundred and fifty-one precincts out of 2,357 give McKinley 144,522; Bryan, 138,758. There are 125 precincts to hear from, which in 1892 gave Harrison 1,732 and Cleveland, 2,008.

First Congressional District.—Three hundred and sixty-three precincts out of 440 give Barham (Rep.), 17,000; Cutler (Fusion), 15,221; Monteith (Pop.), 205.

Second Congressional District.—Four hundred and thirty-seven precincts out of 469 give McKinley (Fusion), 23,572; Johnson (Rep.), 18,378.

Third Congressional District.—Two hundred and fifty-eight out of 267 precincts give Hilborn (Rep.), 19,833; English (Fusion), 15,729.

Fifth Congressional District.—Complete returns give Loud (Rep.), 19,449; Kelly (Dem.), 10,727; Kinne (Pop.), 3,100.

Sixth Congressional District.—Two hundred and twenty-seven precincts out of 219 give McLaughlin (Rep.), 23, 565; Barlow (Fusion), 23,524.

Seventh Congressional District.—Three hundred and twenty-five out of 425 precincts give Powers (Rep.), 15,000; Castle, 19,000. Based upon the latest returns, the state legislature will contain 10 Republican senators, 4 fusion assemblymen, a total of 25 on joint ballot; Populist assemblymen, 1; or a Republican majority over all of 23. Complete returns may change these figures slightly, but it is improbable that the Republican majority will be reduced.

The amendment to the state constitution providing for women's suffrage was defeated by a heavy vote a few days prior to the election, the Liquor Dealers' association, which is said to embrace every dealer in the state, declared against the movement, and fought it more determinedly. To this amendment may be attributed the majority of nearly 20,000 against the amendment in San Francisco.

MISSISSIPPI, Nov. 6.—Few missing precincts were heard from today and California's electoral vote remains practically unchanged. McKinley's plurality now standing at 4,513. In the Sixth congressional district Barlow, fusion, has a majority of 95 over McLaughlin, Republican, with one precinct to hear from. With 13 missing precincts, in which the Democrats claim an advantage in the Seventh district, the fusion, leads Bowers, Republican, by 135. The complexion of the legislature is unchanged.

OREGON.

PORTLAND, Nov. 6.—No returns have been received yet from Crook, Curry and Harney counties. McKinley's plurality stands at 2,292, and returns from these counties will not materially change the result. Bets on McKinley's election are being paid by Democrats in this city, who concede Bryan's defeat in the state."

ties. In eight counties 27 remote precincts are to be heard from, which the chairman of the Democratic state committee estimates will give 187 Democratic plurality.

There are no returns from Big Horn county. This county has 27 voting precincts, casting 1,400 votes. Both the Democratic and Republican committees claim the county by 250 votes. The chairman of the Democratic committee claims the election of Bryan electors, congressman and chief justice by 600 plurality.

The result of the election in Wyoming is still in doubt and will probably not be definitely decided for several days. Tonight the Democratic committee announces the following as the situation:

Returns received give Bryan electors 8,338; McKinley, 9,101.

Congressman, Osborne, Democrat, 9,310; Mondell, Republican, 9,308.

Justice, Corn, Democrat, 9,117; Groesbeck, Republican, 8,917, and claim remaining precincts, numbering 61, will give several hundred additional Democratic majority. Senator Warren, chairman Republican state committee, says:

"Face of returns now indicate the probable election of Mondell, Republican, to congress, the certain election of our supreme judge and of elector, and the probable election of the remaining two electors." The precincts to be heard from cast about 1,400 votes, and both parties claim they will receive from them majorities of 200.

CHEYENNE, Nov. 6.—The Democratic state committee tonight gives its compilation of Wyoming returns as follows:

Bryan, 9,338; McKinley, 9,101. Congress: Osborne (Dem.), 9,310; Mondell (Rep.), 9,308. Justice: Corn (Dem.), 9,117; Groesbeck (Rep.), 8,917. The committee claims precincts to hear from, casting about 1,400 votes, will give the Democrats 200 additional majority.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE.

Friends of the Amendment to the Idaho Constitution Fearful of the Result.

(Special to The Herald.)

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 6.—Returns so far received indicate that the equal suffrage amendment to the state constitution will receive a majority of all the votes cast on the question. The vote on the amendment, however, is a total on joint ballot of 74. Democratic assemblymen, 9; Democratic senators, 6; Democratic hold-over senators, 2; a total of 17 on joint ballot; fusion senators, 4; fusion assemblymen, 4; a total of 25 on joint ballot; Populist assemblymen, 1; or a Republican majority over all of 23. Complete returns may change these figures slightly, but it is improbable that the Republican majority will be reduced.

ELECTION AFTERMATH.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Senator Marion Butler, chairman of the Populist nation committee, is preparing a statement defining the future relations between the Democratic and People's parties as a sort of aftermath to the election returns.

WINTER COOKERY.

Some New Recipes Timely For Cold Weather.

Delicious sweet potato croquettes—Take cold boiled sweet potatoes, put through a fruit press or sieve, form into cakes, dip in egg and roll in cracker crumbs. Fry in deep fat.

An original and improved way to cook squash—Cut a Hubbard squash into pieces of a size suitable to serve one person and place in kettle, skin side up. Pour over it a cup of brown sugar and enough water to partly cover. Cook slowly until water is absorbed.

Aunt Lydia's gingerbread—Add to one well beaten egg one cup of molasses, one cup of flour, one teaspoonful each of salt, ginger and soda, and one-half cup of boiling water. Bake in a shallow pan.

Apple cream—Core large tart apples, fill holes with sugar and bake. Into a pint of boiling milk stir half a cup of sugar and the beaten yolk of one egg; when cold, flavor with vanilla and pour over apples.

For chocolate pie—Scald 1½ pints milk, add one-half cup sugar, one white and two yolks of eggs, one tablespoonful corn starch, one desert spoon of flour, one tablespoonful grated chocolate. Flavor with vanilla.

Steamed graham bread—One cup Indian meal, one graham flour, one sour milk, one warm water and one-half cup of molasses, add one teaspoonful salt and salt to taste. Steam three hours and then dry in oven.

Roast grouse—Take a brace of carefully plucked and cleaned grouse. Tie a piece of raw fat bacon over their breasts and then wrap them up in a piece of buttered paper. Roast them in front of a brisk fire for about half an hour. For the last ten minutes remove the bacon and paper. Keep them frequently basted with a little butter all the time.

Toast two neat slices of bread, place them on a wide gridiron under the birds for the last ten minutes to catch the dripping gravy. Lay these on a hot dish with the birds on them. Put heaps of fried crumbs around the dish.

Serve with gravy and bread sauce. A Scotch way of stewing oysters—This is excellent. Procure oysters of a large size and save the liquor from them. Melt half an ounce of butter in a frying pan; when it is hot lay in the oysters close together, but not on one another; dust over a little pepper and salt; brown them lightly on each side; add some liquor and then mix it all with the remainder.

Slimmer all for about five or six minutes. Serve hot and hand around with it rolled slices of thin brown bread and butter, cut lemon and cayenne.

An easy way of bread-making—This recipe for bread-making is an exceedingly convenient way, and is especially adaptable to small families. Take three tablespoons flour, two tablespoons sugar and one tablespoon salt. Scald one pint of boiling water, let it stand until cool and then add two and one-half hard yeast cakes (not compressed) and let it rise.

Take a dozen good sized potatoes, boil, mash and add three quarts of hot water; put through a sieve; when cool put in the yeast made according to the above recipe and let it stand. This mixture is better to stand a day or two before using. It will keep two or three weeks in a cool place in hot weather, and any length of time in winter. When ready to make bread, take one large coffee cup of mixture to a quart of flour, and stir together without any other wetting and knead it. Let it rise and then make into loaves. Let it rise again and bake. SARAH HUNT.
